

Overview of State Home and Community-based Services (HCBS) Waivers

Key
Small: A waiver serving under 500 individuals	MR/DD: Mentally Retarded and Developmentally Disabled
Moderate: A waiver serving 501-5000	TBI: Traumatic Brain Injury
Large: A waiver serving 5001 & above

Aged and/or Physically Disabled Adults

Alabama	Long Term Care Division HCBS Waiver Service Unit	334-242-5584 334-242-5653
The Homebound waiver is a smaller program for individuals aged 18 and over with severe and chronic physical disabilities, who require the nursing facility level of care. This waiver offers an broad array of services including case management, personal care, medical services, assistive technology, environmental accessibility adaptations, personal emergency response system(PERS)(Installation), PERS(Monthly fee), assistive technology repairs, evaluation for assistive technology, and personal assistance services(PAS). PAS was a new service added to this waiver effective October 1, 2001, after the state was awarded the Ticket to Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act(TWWIA) Grant in October 2000. This service allowed the state to restructure this waiver to implement TWWIA for the disabled population which provide services to assist disabled individuals in the performance of daily activities on and off the job.
Alaska	Department of Health and Social Services	(907) 465-3358
Alaska has two home and community-based services waivers serving this population. The first one, called waiver for older Alaskans, is in its second year of a five year renewal effective 7/1/01-6/30/06 and is serves a moderate number of individuals. Services include case management, respite care, adult day health, environmental modifications, transportation, specialized medical equipment and supplies, chore, meal services, residential supported living arrangements and specialized private duty nursing. Another waiver, called adults with physical disabilities, is in the second renewal period of five years, effective 7/1/01-6/30/06 and serves a moderate number of individuals. Services include case management, chore/home maintenance, private duty nursing, specialized consultation services, nutritional counseling/assistance, medical equipment/supplies, transportation, environmental adaptations/home modifications, habilitation, adult day health, respite care and residential care.
Arkansas	Division of Medical Services Div of Aging and Adult services	501-682-8292 501-682-2441
Arkansas has three home and community-based services waivers serving this population, at the NF level of care. Alternatives for Adults With Disabilities serves a moderate number of physically disabled individuals, with accessibility modifications, equipment, and attendant care. Elder Choices serves a large number of physically disabled or aged persons, with community living supports, day care, foster care, and respite. The Assisted Living Waiver serves a small number of individuals over 21 with assisted living and pharmacy services.

California	Medical Benefits Branch	916-657-1460
California has four home and community-based services waivers that serve this population; one waiver serve the aged population and three waivers serve individuals with physical disabilities and some elderly, depending upon their level of care needed. All of the waivers offer a wide range of services including such services as respite care, case management, environmental modifications, personal emergency response systems, family counseling, habilitation, personal care, assistive technology, chore/home maintenance, and therapy services. All of the waivers serve either a moderate or large population.
Colorado	Office of Medical Assistance Department of Health Care Policy and Financing	303-866-2868
Colorado has one home and community-based services waivers serving this population. One waiver serves a large number of both aged and physically disabled adults and offers a range of services including respite care, residential care, and personal care services.
Connecticut	Department of Social Services	860-424-5033
Connecticut has three home and community-based services waivers serving this population. One waiver provides personal care services to a small population. The other two waiver provide a wide range of services including homemaker, transportation, habilitation, environmental modifications, medical equipment/supplies, personal care, case management, respite care, behavior management, vehicle modification, home delivered meals, family counseling, companion services, personal emergency response system, and chore/home maintenance to moderate populations.
Delaware	Division of Social Services Division of Services for Aging and Adults	(302) 577-4880 (302) 577-4791
Delaware has two home and community-based services waivers serving this population. One provides services for the aged and disabled is in its fourth year of a five year renewal effective 7/1/99-6/30/04 and serves a moderate number of beneficiaries. Services include case management, homemaker, adult day care, respite care, personal emergency response systems, and medical equipment, supplies and appliances. Another waiver provides assisted living services to the aged and disabled and disabled individuals over 18 with physical disabilities and is in the final year of its initial waiver period 10/1/98-9/30/01). The waiver is on temporary extension until 7/1/03, (see below) and serves a small number of individuals.
District of Columbia	Medical Assistance Administration	202-442-5912
The District of Columbia has one home and community-based services waiver for a small number of aged 65 years and older individuals with physical disabilities age 18 and over. This waiver offers several services including case management, homemaker, chore services, personal care aide, respite, attendant care, and assisted living services.
Florida	Medicaid Program Development	850-487-2618
Florida has four home and community-based services waivers serving adults. One of the waivers targets the frail elderly who receive case management and live in assisted living.

Another of the programs serves individuals aged 21 years and older needing renal dialysis services at free-standing dialysis centers. The other two waivers offer a range of services which may include skilled nursing, pest control, financial counseling and training and medication management. Eligible participants for each of these waiver programs must meet a nursing facility level-of-care. The population size of these waiver programs range from small to moderate.
Georgia	Department of Community Health Division of Medical Assistance	404-651-8681 404-656-3200
Georgia has one large home and community-based services waiver serving individuals who are aged and physically disabled. The waiver offers a variety of services, including: adult day health, alternative living services, extended state plan services, personal care services, respite, and residential modification.
Hawaii	Department of Human Services Social Services Division	(808) 692-8050 (808) 586-5584
Hawaii has three home and community based services waivers for aged and disabled adults. One waiver, NHWW, serves a moderate number of adults and offers a range of services including home delivered meals, moving assistance, personal care, respite, case management, transportation, home maintenance, home modifications, adult day health, nursing services, and counseling and training. The other waiver, RACCP, for a moderate number of adults includes case management, respite, residential care and personal care among its services. The HCCP waiver is described in detail under the "Other" section.
Idaho	Department of Health and Welfare	(202) 364-1958
Idaho has one home and community-based services waiver serving this population. One, effective (10/1/02-9/30/07) provides services for the aged and disabled age 18 and older. This waiver is in the first year of its five year renewal period and serves a large number of beneficiaries. A wide range of services are provided including, but not limited to, case management, attendant care, assisted living and adult residential care, homemaker, and skilled nursing services.
Illinois	Department of Public Aid – Bureau of Interagency Coordination Bureau of Long Term Care (SLF) Department on Aging (over 60) Dept of Human Service – Office of Rehab Services	217-577-1868 217-524-7245 217-785-3356 217-782-2722
Illinois has three waivers that serve the aged and disabled. The first one Supportive Living Facilities (SLF) targets persons with disabilities age 22 or over and those who are age 65 and over and provides affordable assisted living. It serves a moderate number of individuals who are at the nursing facility level of care. Another waiver targets persons who are over age 60 and provides homemaker and adult day care services. The waiver serves a large number of recipients who require the care of a nursing facility. The third targets physically disabled children and adults, birth to 59 years and provides adult day care, personal care, homemaker, and a personal emergency response system. The waiver serves a large number of persons who require care at the nursing facility level of care.
Indiana	Bureau of Aging/ In-Home Services	317-232-7111 317-232-7093

Indiana has two home and community-based services waivers serving adults who must meet a nursing facility level of care. One of the waivers serves adults beginning with the age of 18 years. One of the waiver programs offer a range of services including homemaker, supported employment and adult day care. The other waiver provides assisted living, chore and companion services. Medicaid buy-in is available to eligible employed participants. These waivers are moderate in size.
Iowa	Dept of Human Services, Medical Assistance Unit	515-281-5169
Iowa has 2 waivers serving this population. One waiver provides consumer directed attendant care, personal emergency response system, environmental adaptations and home and vehicle modifications, medical equipment and supplies to a small number of physically disabled adults between ages 18 and 64 who require nursing facility care. The second waiver provides homemaker, respite care, adult day health, nutrition counseling, home and vehicle modifications to a moderate number of adults aged 65 or older who require nursing facility care.
Kansas	Department of Aging	785-296-4986
	Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services	785-296-3561
Kansas has two home and community-based waivers that serve this population. One waiver serves aged adults. The waiver serves a large population and provides a range of services including adult day care, assistive technology, attendant care, nursing evaluation, personal emergency response system, wellness monitoring, and respite care. The other home and community-based services waiver that serves physically disabled adults. The waiver serves a large population and provides personal care, assistive technology and Independent Living counseling.
Kentucky	Department for Medicaid Services	502-564-7540
Kentucky has three home and community-based services waivers serving this population. One waiver provides personal care and case management services to a small population. The other two waivers provide a range of services, including attendant care; environmental modifications, case management, homemaker, personal care, adult day health, and respite care to moderate population for one waiver and to a large population for the other waiver.
Louisiana	Department of Health and Hospitals	225-219-0200
	Bureau of Community Supports and Services	1-800-660-0488
Louisiana has three home and community-based services waivers serving individuals who are aged and physically disabled. The Adult Day Health Care waiver offers adult day health care to a moderate number of adults who are elderly or disabled. The Personal Care Attendant waiver offers personal care attendant services to a small number of adults who are disabled and between the ages of 18-55. The Elderly and Disabled Adult waiver is a moderately sized waiver that offers an array of services including: case management, personal care, environmental accessibility adaptations, and adult companion services, to adults who are elderly or disabled.
Maine	Bureau of Elder & Adult Services	207-624-5335
	Bureau of Rehabilitation Services	207-624-5922
Maine has three home and community-based services waivers serving this population,

who meet a nursing facility level of care. The first, offers an array of services including personal care, adult day health, transportation, homemaker, personal emergency response systems, home health, and environmental adaptations to a moderate number of elderly individuals aged 60 and over. Another waiver offers a similar array of services, but is targeted to a small number of physically disabled adults aged 62 and under. A third waiver provides services to a small number of adults aged 18 and over with severe physical disabilities who are their own guardian and have the ability and desire to self-direct the services they receive. This waiver offers services such as personal care, consumer instruction and personal emergency response systems.
Maryland	Department of Health and Mental Hygiene Maryland Department on Aging	410-767-5220 410-767-5573
One waiver serves a moderate number of aged 50 and over people who require nursing facility care with various services including assisted living, environmental adaptations and modifications, behavioral consultations, PERS, home delivered meals, personal care, expanded DME, consumer training, and respite. Recipients may receive services in assisted living settings or in their own homes. The other, targets adults with physical disabilities aged 21 through 59 , though they can remain on the waiver until age 64. Those recipients require nursing facility care. The waiver serves a small number of people and provides respite services, attendant care, assistive technology, environmental adaptations, PERS, OT, and ST. This waiver serves recipients in their own homes.
Massachusetts	Executive Office of Elder Affairs	617-222-7468
Massachusetts operates one large home and community-based services waiver serving adults aged 60 and over who meet a nursing facility level of care. An array of services are offered including residential habilitation, adult day health, homemaker, companion services, and home delivered meals.
Michigan	Michigan Dept of Community Health Office of Services to the Aging	(517) 335-5001 (517) 373-8230
Michigan has one home and community-based services waiver serving a large number of aged or disabled individuals over 18, at the NF level of care. The waiver provides services including in-home services, meals, accessibility modifications, adult day health care, transportation, training, specialized medical equipment and supplies, nursing, and respite.
Minnesota	Dept. of Human Services, Health Care Division Comm. Supports for Seniors Disabilities Services Division	(651) 296-3386 (651) 296-2738 (651) 582-1998
Minnesota has two home and community-based services waivers serving a large number of aged or disabled individuals, at the NF level of care. One waiver provides a wide range of services to individuals over 65, including in-home services, meals, adult day health care, assisted living, adult foster care, transportation, family training, equipment and supplies, extended home health, and respite. A second waiver serves disabled individuals under 65, providing, in addition to the above services, independent living skills training and vocational services, and child foster care.
Mississippi	Division of Medicaid, Community LTC	601-359-6759 601-359-6729

Mississippi has three home and community-based services waivers serving individuals who are aged or physically disabled. The Independent Living Waiver offers personal care and case management to a moderate number of disabled adults ages 21-64. The Assisted Living Waiver offers case management and assisted living to aged and disabled adults. The waiver serves a moderate number of individuals and is accessible to individuals in Bolivar, Forrest, Harrison, Hinds, Lee, Newton, and Sunflower counties. The Elderly and Disabled Waiver also offers supports to aged and disabled adults, but to a larger number of individuals. This waiver offers an array of services including: case management, homemaker, respite, home delivered meals, and transportation. The waiver is available to individuals in DeSoto, Lee, Lowndes, Leflore, Washington, Hinds, Forrest, Amite, Prentiss, Union, Oktibbeha, Carroll, Rankin, Newton, Harrison, Jackson, and contiguous counties.
Missouri	Dept. of Social Services – Division of Medical Services	573-751-6926
Missouri has two home and community-based services waivers serving the Aged and Disabled population. Eligible candidates for these waiver programs must meet a nursing home level of care. One of the programs is a large waiver serving over 24,000 individuals, offering a range of services including respite services, homemaker services, chore services, and home-delivered meals. The second moderate-sized waiver targets individuals age 18 - 64 with physical and/or cognitive disabilities and offers consumer-directed personal assistant services, case management, specialized medical equipment and supplies, and environmental accessibility adaptations. Both offer a range of services including respite care services, chore services, and home delivered meals. One of the waivers also specifically targets individuals with a diagnosis of sialidosis type 1 for juveniles. One of the programs is a large waiver serving over 20,000 individuals.
Montana	Senior and Long Term Care Division Developmental Disabilities Program	(406) 444-4150 (406) 444-2695
Montana has one waiver for this eligibility group. One is in the second year (7/1/02-6/30/03) of a five year renewal (7/1/2001-6/30/06). This waiver provides a wide array of services including but not limited to, case management, personal care, habilitation including residential, day prevocational, supported employment and habilitation aide and adult residential care to aged and disabled including AIDS patients and serves a moderate number of individuals. This waiver also has a number of services targeted to individuals with a brain injury.
Nebraska	Health and Human Services, Finance & Support	402-471-8241
Nebraska has one moderate size home and community-based services waiver serving aged and disabled adults (*and children) who meet a nursing facility level of care. This waiver offers an array of services including respite, chore, assisted living, adult day health, nutritional counseling, home modifications, home delivered meals, and nursing home transition services.
Nevada	Department of Human Services Division of Aging Services Division of Health Care & Policy	775-687-4210 775-684-3760
Nevada has three waivers that target this population. The first targets persons aged 65 and over who require a nursing facility level of care and provides for services including case management, personal care, homemaker, chore, personal emergency response system, adult companion, respite, and adult day care. It serves a moderate number elderly recipients.

Another waiver targets the fragile elderly, and the elderly in group care. They need the level of nursing facility care with various services including case management, and personal care for recipients in group care. The waiver serves a small number of recipients.

A third waiver targets recipients of all ages, mostly under aged 66, with physical disabilities including blindness. The waiver provides services including case management, homemaker, respite, environmental accessibility adaptations, transportation, chore, personal emergency response system, independent living skills training, attendant care, home delivered meals, specialized medical equipment, preventative dental care and assisted living. It serves a moderate number.

New Hampshire	Department of Health and Human Services Division of Elderly and Adult Services	603-271-4912 603-271-4643
----------------------	---	------------------------------

New Hampshire has one home and community-based services waiver serving the elderly and chronically ill. The waiver serves a moderate number of individuals who are elderly (65 and older) or physically disabled (18 and older). The waiver offers an array of services including: community living services, personal care, adult group day care, and environmental accessibility adaptations.

New Jersey	Department of Health and Senior Services Bureau of Home and Community Services	609-588-2903 609-588-2621
-------------------	---	------------------------------

New Jersey has three home and community-based services waivers serving this population. One waiver (Community Care Program for Elderly and Disabled) serves a moderate number of disabled adults (* and children) who meet a nursing facility level of care, and offers services such as social adult day care, homemaker, case management, and respite. A second waiver serves a small number of blind or disabled adults (* and children) who meet a nursing facility level of care, and offers case management and private duty nursing. A third waiver (Enhanced Community Options) serves a moderate number of aged or disabled adults aged 21 and over who met a nursing facility level of care, and allows for the transition of elderly individuals from nursing homes to community settings such as adult foster care, assisted living residences and comprehensive personal care homes. An array of services are offered including chore, attendant care, environmental modifications, home-based supportive care, personal emergency response systems, social adult day care, and home delivered meals.

New Mexico	Medical Assistance Division Department of Human Services	(505) 827-3106
-------------------	---	----------------

New Mexico has one home and community-based services waiver for aged and/or disabled adults. This waiver serves a moderate number of individuals and provides an array of services including case management, assisted living, homemaker/companion services, and private duty nursing.

New York	Dept. of Health, Office of Medicaid Management	518-474-5271
-----------------	--	--------------

New York has one large home and community-based services waiver for the aged and physically disabled. This program can serve persons of all ages, but prospective applicants must meet a nursing facility level-of-care. This waiver program offers a range of services including moving assistance, personal emergency response system, nutritional counseling, chore/home maintenance services, home improvements, respite, social day care, to social day care, home delivered meals and medical social work. This waiver serves over 20,000 individuals.

North Carolina	Division of Medical Assistance	919-857-4011
North Carolina has one large home and community-based services waiver serving aged and/or disabled individuals who meet a nursing facility level of care. The waiver offers an array of services including adult day health, personal emergency response systems, home delivered meals, home mobility aids, and respite.
North Dakota	Aging Services Division	701-328-8905
North Dakota has one small home and community-based services waiver serving aged and/or disabled individuals who meet a nursing facility level of care. The waiver offers an array of services including homemaker, chore, respite, HCBS case management, personal care service, adult foster care, adult day care, non-medical transportation, emergency response system, environmental modification, training for family caregiver, specialized equipment, and adult residential service.
Ohio	Department of Jobs and Family Services	(614) 466-9254
	Department Aging	(614) 466-5500
Ohio has three home and community-based services waiver serving this population. One waiver is in the last year of a five year renewal that was effective (7/1/98-6/30/03) and serves a large number of beneficiaries. A wide range of services include, but are not limited to, personal care, assistive technology, independent living skills, chore/home maintenance, adult day health, and environmental modifications to the aged and disabled. The second waiver is in the final year of a three year initial term (7/1/98-6/30/01). The waiver is currently on temporary extensions. This waiver provides daily living services, center based adult health, minor home modifications, transportation, personal emergency response systems, adaptive/assistive devices, nursing and home delivered meals for individuals under age 60 who require nursing facility care or individuals of any age who require hospital care. The third is in the second year of its initial waiver term (7/1/2001-6/30/2004). This model waiver is limited to a small number of individuals at any point in. This waiver includes adult day health, environmental accessibility adaptations, specialized medical equipment and supplies, personal emergency response systems, home care attendant, alternate meals and home delivered
Oklahoma	Oklahoma Department of Human Services
	Aging Services Division	405-521-4165
	Oklahoma Health Care Authority	405-522 7300
Oklahoma has one waiver that targets the frail elderly and adults with physical disabilities who would otherwise require services in a Nursing Facility (NF). Services provided include case management, Comprehensive Home Care services, skilled nursing, respite, medical equipment and supplies, PT, OT, speech therapy, advanced personal care services, home-delivered meals, prescription drugs above the state plan limit, and environmental modifications. It serves a large number recipients and is “individually” cost tested (cost “cap” per individual is equal to 200% of the Medicaid cost related to the NF comparison group).

Oregon	Senior and Disabled Services Division	(503) 945-6392
	Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Services Division	(503) 945-9791
Oregon has one home and community-based services waiver serving this population. It is in the second year of a five year renewal that is effective (10/1/01-9/30/06) and serves a large number of individuals. Services include, but are not limited to, assisted living, residential care, in-home care and respite care for the aged and disabled aged 18 and older.
Pennsylvania	DPW, Office of Social Programs	717-705-5060
	DPW, Office of Medical Assistance Programs	717-772-2525
	DPW, Office of Social Programs	717-783-2215
Pennsylvania has three home and community-based services waivers serving individuals who are aged or physically disabled. The Attendant Care Waiver is moderately sized and serves individuals between the ages of 18-59 with physical disabilities, and offers attendant care services. The Independence Waiver is small in size, and serves adults ages 18 years or older with physical disabilities. The waiver provides a variety of services including: service coordination, respite, habilitation, community integration, environmental accessibility adaptations, and therapies. The Aging Waiver serves a large number of adults age 60 and older and offers a variety of services, including: personal care, respite, older adult daily living centers, environmental modifications, and home health services.
Rhode Island	Department of Human Services	401-462-6303
Rhode Island has 5 home and community-based services waivers serving the aged and/or physically disabled adults with target populations ranging from 25 to 1800. Three of these waivers require a nursing facility level of care and offer personal care, environmental modifications, specialized equipment, meals on wheels and PERS: one for aged and disabled, one for people aged 65 and over only, and one for consumer-directed services. There is also an Assisted Living waiver which requires a nursing facility level of care. The newest waiver requires a hospital level of care (sub-acute rehabilitation or medical), and offers habilitative private duty nursing, and enhanced rehabilitation services in addition to specialized equipment and environmental modifications.
South Carolina	Dept. of Health & Human Services	803-898-2590
South Carolina has three home and community-based services waivers serving this population. One serves a large number of both aged and disabled adults and offers an array of services including case management, home delivered meals, personal care, respite, and medical equipment & supplies. The second provides case management and assisted living services to a moderate number of adults with dementia in Lexington, Lancaster, Greenville, Aiken, Horry, Charleston and Spartanburg counties. A third waiver for a small number of persons dependent on mechanical ventilation includes personal care, respite care, prescription drugs, medical equipment/supplies, among other services. South Carolina is also preparing to submit a new waiver that will provide consumer directed home and community-based services for adults with physical disabilities; this waiver is to be submitted under the parameters of the Independence Plus initiative.

South Dakota	Office of Adult Services and Aging Division of Rehabilitation Services	605-773-3656 605-773-3195
South Dakota has two home and community-based services waivers that serve this population. One waiver serves a small aged population and provides homemaker, adult day health, specialized medical equipment and supplies, personal emergency response systems, private duty nursing, adult residential care, meals, and nutritional supplements. The second waiver serves a small disabled population and provides case management, consumer preparation services, personal attendant services, emergency response services and private duty nursing.
Tennessee	Dept of Health, Bureau of TennCare Commission on Aging	(615) 741-0213 (615) 741-2056
Tennessee has three home and community-based services waivers serving this population, at the NF level of care. Two small waivers for the aged or disabled, one targeted for residents of Shelby County, provide services including in-home services, meals, and accessibility modifications. A waiver serving a moderate number of persons over 21 with disabilities includes in-home services and meals, accessibility modifications, and respite.
Texas	Texas Health & Human Services Commission Texas Department of Human Services	512-685-3172 5 512-438-3190
Texas has three home and community-based services waivers that serve this population. The Community Based Alternatives Waiver, which serves a large population; the CBA Star+Plus waiver, which serves a moderate population and the Consolidated Waiver Program, which serves a small population. All of the waivers offer a wide range of services that include services such as residential care, skilled nursing, speech, hearing, and language therapies, psychologist services, physical therapy, nutritional counseling, social work, medical equipment and supplies, case management, respite care, dental, environmental modifications, companion services, supported living, adult foster care, and habilitation.
Utah	Department of Health	801-538-6638
Utah has one home and community-based services waiver that serves an aged population. The waiver serves a small population and offers a wide range of services including personal care, case management, homemaker, chore services, home delivered meals, companion, adult day care, adult foster care, personal response systems, transportation, home modifications, family/caregiver training, respite care and specialized medical equipment and supplies. Utah has another home and community-based services waiver that serves individuals with disabilities. The waiver serves a small population and provides consumer-directed training, attendant care, supported coordination and personal emergency response systems.
Vermont	Dept. of Aging and Disabilities	802-241-2400
Vermont operates two home and community-based services waivers serving the aged and disabled. These two waivers serve elders and people over the age of 18 who have a physical disability. The Home-Based waiver offers personal care, respite care, companion care, adult day, personal emergency response systems, assistive devices and home modifications and case management services. The Enhanced Residential Care waiver provides residential care (in approved residential care and assistive living facilities) and case management services. Both waivers provide alternatives to nursing home care.

Virginia	Department of Medical Assistance Services	(804) 692-0481
Virginia has three home and community-based services waivers serving this population. The first is in the second year of a five year renewal that was effective (1/1/02-12/31/06) and serves a large number of individuals. Services include personal care, respite care, adult day health services and personal emergency response systems to the aged and disabled. A second waiver is in the first year of a five year renewal (7/1/02-6/30/07). This waiver provides attendant care services to the aged and disabled aged 18 and over and is consumer directed. The third is on temporary extensions pending conversion to a regular waiver. Prior to conversion, this model waiver is limited to no more than 200 individuals at any point in time. This waiver serves medically fragile, technology dependent individuals and includes private duty nursing, personal care, respite care and environmental modifications. In the last year of the current renewal, the State projects serving 268 recipients.
Washington	Aging and Disabilities Administration	360-725-2300
	Dept. of Social and Health Services	360-725-1563
Washington has three home and community-based services waivers that serve the aged and disabled population. Eligible participants require a nursing facility level-of-care. They each provide a range of services that may include assisted living, adult day care, personal care, skilled nursing, and home delivered meals. The size of the populations served by each waiver range from moderately size to large.
West Virginia	Bureau of Medical Services	304-558-1700
	Bureau of Senior Services	304-558-3317
West Virginia has one moderate size home and community-based services waiver serving age 18 and older disabled individuals, who meet a nursing facility level of care. This waiver offers an array of services including case management, adult day health, homemaker, and chore.
Wisconsin	Dept. of Health and Family Services	608-266-3884
		608-266-1520
Wisconsin has two home and community-based services waivers serving this population. One (Community Options Program) serves a large number of both aged and physically disabled adults while a second waiver (Family Care), that is only available in select counties, serves a moderate number of aged and physically disabled adults. Both waivers include a range of services including respite care, case management, personal care, home modifications, daily living skills, and home delivered meals.
Wyoming	WY Dept of Health
	Office of Medicaid	(307) 777-6034
	Aging Division	(307) 777-7366
Wyoming has two home and community-based services waivers serving a moderate number of aged or disabled individuals 19 and over, at the NF level of care. One waiver provides case management, residential care, and assisted living services. A second waiver provides case management, personal care, meals, PERS, adult day health, transportation, skilled nursing, and respite.